Dear Josh —

A letter from Victor Twitty tells me that you have been to Stanford and know of my own interest in the situation there. I would be much interested in your reactions, your decisions, and the whys and wherefores to the extent that you care to divulge. I would myself regard it as an extra bonus if we were to be associated there, and hope that you would not be too chagrined if it were to occur.

Best wishes for the new year to you and Esther.

Chick

Incidentally, I am pledged to Twitty to keep your own interest confidential and, of course, will continue to do so until otherwise instructed.
